

Dear _____

I have FASD, which means my brain and body were affected by alcohol before I was born. People with FASD need diagnosis and support.

We want to be treated with the same respect as others. We created this new UK FASD Manifesto. The Health Secretary Steven Barclay met with a young adult with FASD to learn about it. Will you meet with me and my family so we can tell you more?

Signed,

Age

Address